Dear Mr. President,

My name is Sarah, I am a 15 years old student and I am attending the ninth grade. I read about what happened to Tadjadine Mahamat Babouri and I am really not happy about it. He does not deserve such a sentence just because of criticism against the government. Everyone should have a chance to express their opinion freely without getting imprisoned. Because of that I would be very happy about the release of Mahadine. I know, just one letter cannot do anything about it but I hope that the mass of letters by students and other people can do something to make the situation better. Even if it is just a little bit that changes I am sure that many people, including me, will be very happy about it. Our goal is to make the world we are living in a better place without suppression, discrimination and sadness but with freedom, equality and happiness.

Sincerely

Sarah
